

Distinct were delighted to host a Breakfast Briefing entitled 'Global Economy, Local Challenges: Positioning Ireland for the Upturn' on Tuesday, April 19th in the Merrion Hotel, Dublin. Our guest speaker was former Taoiseach, EU Ambassador to the US and currently President of the Irish Financial Services Centre (IFSC), John Bruton. The event was attended by Senior Executives from a range of Public and Private sector organisations.

John shared his informed view on the current economic environment, locally and internationally, and provided his insight into Ireland's prospects and challenges as we commence a new term of Government.

The following article appeared in the Irish Times the following day, April 20th:
<http://www.irishtimes.com/newspaper/ireland/2011/0420/1224295067877.html>